

PARENTS STILL SEEK HER.

DOROTHY ARNOLD.

SEEK GIRL IN ITALY

Parents of Dorothy Arnold
Sail for Genoa.

KEPT DEPARTURE SECRET

Lawyer for Family, It Is Learned,
Has Visited Many Cities of This Country.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The search for Dorothy Arnold, who disappeared December 12 last, has taken her parents back to Italy, where it was at one time supposed she had gone to meet George S. Griscom, Jr., to whom she had become engaged, though he was not approved of by the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Arnold, parents of the girl, sailed June 15 on the steamship Carpathia of the Cunard line for Genoa. Their names appeared on the sailing list simply as Mr. F. Arnold and Mrs. Arnold, and the fact they were on board escaped attention.

George S. Griscom, Jr., and his parents, when sought for after the news of Dorothy's disappearance had become public, were found at Florence, Italy, and it is believed that the Arnolds are going straight to that city.

The fact of their sailing, just five days after the marriage of Dr. Hinchley Arnold, Dorothy's younger brother, and Miss Mildred Culver, has been kept a close secret by the family and their friends. The Arnold house at 106 East 70th street was boarded up, and inquiries in the vicinity elicited only the information that the Arnolds had gone to the country.

Son on Staten Island.

D. Hinchley Arnold and his bride went to the country on their honeymoon, but his father and mother completed arrangements to go abroad as guests at the wedding was held. John W. Arnold, the eldest son, has left his apartment in the city and taken up his residence on Staten Island. Lawyer John S. Keith, counsel for the family, also left town some time ago.

Rudolph C. Culver, brother of Mrs. D. Hinchley Arnold, confirmed at his residence, No. 863 Park avenue, last night the fact of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold's departure for Europe. When Mr. Culver was asked by a reporter where the elder Arnolds were he replied that he only knew they were traveling abroad.

"Have you learned any news of Dorothy?" Mr. Culver was asked.

"I really cannot say," he said. "I can tell you is that they sailed a few days after the wedding of my sister and I have not heard from them since."

"Have you any information to lead you to believe they have solved the mystery?"

16 to 1.

This is the only store in the neighborhood that closes Saturdays at 6 p.m., all the rest keeping open until 9 and 10 o'clock.

We believe our salespeople are better able to serve you because of the early closing of the store on Saturdays. If everybody comes before 6 p.m. on Saturdays it will not be long before every other store in this vicinity falls into line and joins the early-closing movement.

SEMI-ANNUAL RUMMAGE SALE IN FEELING!

It started with a rush this morning that clearly attested the great interest taken in this semi-annual "round-up" of small lots and broken lines by shrewd Washington shoppers. The Rummage Sale will last for one week, and the selling must be fast and furious—for in this short period we must clear out all the odd lots, the ends of lines, the overstocks, remnants and broken sizes brought to sight through stock-taking. Prices have been reduced absolutely without regard for actual cost or real value. You will find here tomorrow and every day this week phenomenal bargains in the most wanted summer merchandise. Be here tomorrow and see for yourself how irresistible the economies really are.
